Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

Claims 16-28,30-32 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Muller in view of Mueller. Muller discloses the basic degerming apparatus except for the use of baffles on the stator. This may result in inefficient degerming. Mueller solves this problem by disclosing similar apparatus including the use of baffles on a stator. In order to ensure efficient degerming, it would have been obvious for one of ordinary skill in the art to modify Muller by providing baffles on the stator, taught to be desirable by Mueller. The remaining limitations would then have been obvious design choices only. For example, the use of a hollow shaft to allow for entrance of air is well known in the art and of no patentable merit. Also, adjustable devices to control the treatment time are well known in the art and of no patentable merit.

Claims 11,13,15,29 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Griebat et al in view of Mueller and Muller. Griebat et al discloses the basic process and apparatus including degerming grains by cleaning, seeding, aspirating, and milling (claim 4, lines 4-5 and column 5, lines 23-24). Griebat et al does not use a rotor/stator combination having projections which may result in inefficient degerming. The Muller/Mueller combination set forth in the paragraph above solves this problem by disclosing a similar process and apparatus including the use of projections on a rotor/stator. In order to efficiently degerm the material, it would have been obvious for one of ordinary skill in the art to modify Griebat et al by using degerming apparatus shown in the Muller/Mueller combination.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments filed 6/24/09 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. The examiner sees no reason why the roller structure of Mueller cannot be considered to have edges formed by planar surfaces. This is the only argument presented by applicant.

Conclusion

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
